ARIZONA REPUBLICAN. Approving, With Amoudments, the Funding Act of Arizona.

Approving. With Amendments, the Funding Act of Arizona.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the act of the revised statutes of Arizona of 1887, known as "Title XXXI—Funding," be and is hereby, amended so as to read as follows, and that as amended the same is hereby approved and confirmed, subject to future Torritorial legislation: "Title XXXI—Funding and loan. Chapter one. Territorial, ecunty, municipal and school district indebtedness."

Par. 388, (18ec. 1.) For the purpose of liquidating and providing for the payment of the outstanding and existing indebtedness of the Territory of Arizona and smeh future indebtedness as may be or is now authorized by law, the Governor of the said Territory, together with the Territorial auditor and Territorial secretary, and their successors in office, shall constitute a board of commissioners, to be styled the loan commissioners of the Territory of Arizona, and shall have and exercise the powers and perform the duties hereinafter provided.

Par. 2010, (Sec. 2.) It shall be, and is hereby, declared the duty of the loan commissioners to provide for the payment of the existing Territorial indebtedness due, and to become due, or that is now, or may be hereafter, authorized by law, and for the purpose of paying, redeeming and refunding all or any part of the principal and interest, or either of the existing and subsisting Territorial legal indebtedness, and also that which may at any time become due, or is now, or may be hereafter, authorized by law, the said commissioners shall, from time to time, issue negotiable coupon bonds of this Territory.

Par. 2011, (Sec. 2.) Said bonds shall be issued as near as practicable in denominations of one thousand dollars, but bonds of a lower denomination, not less than two hundred and fifty dollars, may be issued when necessary. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate to be fixed by said loan commissioners, but in no case to exceed five per centum per annum, wh
